Investing in Servant Leaders

Asia Pacific Theological Seminary

For the global church to grow, there must be trained leaders—leaders who are biblically and theologically grounded and able to be the servant leaders who by their lives and teaching raise up disciples of Jesus Christ who can share their faith with others. That is what Asia Pacific Theological Seminary (APTS) is all about.

This week 43 students from 15 countries graduated with Graduate Certificates in Ministerial and Theological Studies, and Bachelor of Arts (Chinese Language Program), Master of Arts (English and Chinese Language Programs), and Master of Divinity degrees.

Galen and Dickie have just finished their 16th school year at APTS! This school year they had in their classes students from Korea, Myanmar (Burma), the Philippines, Taiwan, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, China, Switzerland, the Dominican Republic, Thailand, and New Zealand. In total, the APTS students came from 30 countries around the world. Dickie taught several different English classes, and Galen taught Hermeneutics, New Testament Theology, and New Testament Introduction.
